A Card.—At a meeting of the passengers on board steamship instrille, beaund from Savannah to New York, held at sea on the history of the board state of the season of the season between steamships Hinterville and Alabama just after having Savannah, the following preamble and resolutions were similared, and manifronsly adopted by the passengers.

Whenea, the the afternoon of the 4th of Sept. the steamship Hastaville left the City of Savannah at $2 \cdot check, F. M., bound for hear york. That after proceeding from six to cight miles down the river the Alabama came up and passed the Hunteville on the tarboard side, going ahead of her. That she then at mapping to the cross the bows of the latter vessel, passing over to the haboard side. In making this effort to pass the bows of the Hasteville is became evident that a collision must occur. The lister of the Hasteville immediately canned her engine to be supped and reversed, but could not after her course, as she was paint to be channel, heavily laden and drawing the musual traget of 15 feet water; besides, the close proximity of the vessels to approach each other rendered contact linevitable.

The Alabama, of much higher draught, could have deasily avoided this collaion by keeping away, as she could, have done, or by a pagising in grossing the bows of the Hunteville. Where-wen these Resileed. That we deem the attempt of the Alabama to cross bows of the Huntaville before she got sufficiently shead of the pass without damage as the sole cause of the collision.

Resided, That a copy of these resolutions, signed by the passagers, be handed to Capt. Post of the Huntaville, together wh alender of our thanks for his kind and gentlemanly treatmand them on the present trip from Savannah to New-York.

SERMONS TO THE CHURCHES.

MEMOIR OF DAVID TAPPAN STODDARD,

and around Oroomiah.

I vol., 12mo. 81.

Dr. Thompson was a classmate and intimate friend of Mr. Stoddard. The memoir is framed almost entirely from material furnished by Mr. Stoddard's correspondence, in which his rare excellence as a Christian was always complications. The Rev. Mr. Rura of Oroomiah says:

"His soul was wrapped up in his work. A stream of none was continually flowing through his heart. He had the happy, exaltant spirit of McChyne and Summerfield."

The Rev. Dr. Goodell of Constantinople says:

"He was not only a main to be greatly respected and esteemed, but also to be greatly level. His intellectual and moral qualities were of the very highest order."

The Rev. H. G. O. Dwight, D. D., of Constantinople, says of Mr. Sydonaute.

"I can say with truth that it was never my privilege to con-samplete a more perfect and complete character. His taleants, catural and acquired, were varied and rare, and yet his whole leportment was unassuming and modest, and his affectionate armestnessand glowing plety won all hearts."

The Rev. Ruvus ANDERSON, D. D., Secretary of the A. B. C. M., remarks;

The special attention of the trade is invited to these new inces. They will be supplied on liberal terms.

NEW-YORK, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1858.

A NEW VOLUME by a Fresh and Charming TRUE TO THE LAST;

ALONE ON A WIDE, WIDE SEA.

By A. S. Ros.

One neat thmo. Volume, §1 25.

There is no witer of the present day who excels this charming anther in the natural and home-like simplicity of his style, and the natural interest and truthfulness of his narrative. In thousands of families and Sabbath-Schools his books are read and re-read with ever-increasing delight. The young and old, the quiet and gay, are alike fawinated by his pages. Hogath not more surely touches his with his wilcard spell. It is transfixed and permanent. Like Goldmith's Vicar of Wakefield, his books should be placed upon the shelf to show what American views and manners reveal, just as that simple tale tells of what comes from anglish in-citothous. He is an American truly and heartify; American in thought and feeling, American truly By Francis Wayland, D. D.—I vol., Ifme. Price $1.

Ready Sept. 10: what comes from English institutions. He is an American truly and heartily; American in thought and feeling, American in tone and language. His books will live as graphic pictures of the times be delineates. Rather of the old school in Church and social privileges, he is sufficiently universal to make his delinea-tion national. There is about him a complacency, a wholesanse cheerfulness, a fertility of resource, a hopefulness, a glow and persistancy wholly Yankee. Rival editions of all his books have been published in England, edited by the Rev. Dr. Taylor, where they have already reached the enormous sale of 120,090 volumes. A NEW BOOK BY SPURGEON.

"Spurgeon's Gens.—The publishers of Spurgeon's Sermens.—Shelden, Blakeman & Co.—lawe in press a volume of Brilliant Passages' from the discourses of this remarkable preacher. We have seen the sheets of the new book, and every page is a fame of glowing fire. The extracts are brief and characteristic, earnest, bold and strong, full of straing thought, brilliant imagery and warm appeal. We think it will be far more attractive than the volumes of his sermons, and they have had an extruordinary circulation in this country."
